She provided an overview of the Assembly Bills and Senate Bills that had the most impact on the four priority areas selected by the EOC in the Community Action Plan. The group voted by a show of hands to advocate for the following legislation on Advocacy Day in May: AB1996 California Child Poverty Reduction, AB 713 Opportunity for All Act, and SB 1422 Medi-Cal Access Restoration Act. Tiglao will create talking points, including fiscal impacts for the EOC delegation.

This Consent Item was adopted.

8. Staff Report

Castle-Barber reported that funding for all CSB programs is secure for the coming year. She also shared that former EOC Member Lauren Babb Tomlinson is running for Congress in Sacramento - unopposed! Molina suggested that the EOC participate in Week of the Young Child Activities in April.

9. Chair Report

Chair Medlen announced that the SNIP Bus is coming to Contra Costa County and is an excellent way for low income residents to get their animals neutered at low cost. She will provide a flyer to be shared. She also spoke to the protest on 3/28 and the human chain that will be forming from Sunvalley Mall to Walnut Creek.

10. EOC Member Reports

Coleman provided the Policy Council report, stating that the agency achieved full enrollment. She shared the goals of the program with the EOC and explained her role as liaison.

Lopez shared that she is on the board for the California Area on Aging and spoke about the robust master plan. Castle-Barber requested and received a copy.

Zeimer spoke to the Head Start Advocacy letter that she signed on to and urged other to do the same. She spoke to Amplify and Align, that has translated the cost of the war on Iran to what that funding could do for Head Start.

Sewell spoke to difficulty reaching the unhoused population recently as they have gone into hiding in areas that are not easily accessible. She recently provided backpack to an unhoused woman and called 211 to have CORE check on her. She urged others to do the same.

11. Next Steps and Meeting Evaluation.

Next steps:

1. Reich to ask N. Roman to participate in week of the young child and sing
2. Reich to send Lopez data on special education in Coco County and what's being done.
