I believe that serving as the Lafayette Representative for the Board is an opportunity to contribute positively to both Lafayette and Contra Costa County. It's also an opportunity to make a difference in someone's life. I deeply enjoyed my experience as a Board Member and President of the Lafayette School Board and want to continue to offer my services where needed. As a member of the San Francisco Bar Association, I provided Pro Bono legal services in connection with tax controversy representation before the IRS.

Thank you for your consideration of my candidacy for the position of Lafayette representative for the Contra Costa Advisory Council on Aging (ACOA)
