Please explain why you would like to serve on this particular board, committee, or commission.

During the past 5 years (estimate) I have served on the ACOA and have been a chair of the Planning Committee and I am currently the co-chair of the Housing Workgroup. I have found the work rewarding and enriching as we strive to improve the lives of those seniors and disabled who are currently facing challenges. While progress to date addressing these challenges has been very incremental, I believe in the areas of awareness of issues in our communities and providing advocacy of potential solutions the ACOA as a group is having an impact.

I have found my colleagues on the ACOA strong advocates for challenged seniors and disabled and I have a deep respect for them. These colleagues and our interactions have been a real highlight of my experience on the ACOA.

Additionally I have felt well supported by the exceptional group of staff members which make fulfilling our roles much easier.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume).

I feel my qualifications are as follows;

5 years of active participation in the Contra Costa County ACOA.

25+ years as a Commissioner on the Danville Parks, Recreation and Arts Commission

42+ year successful career in banking and equipment finance.

Bachelor and Master degrees from prominent West Coast universities.
