

Salary & benefits

A salary of $277,057 PLUS an attractive benefits package that includes:

- Hybrid Work Schedule up to two days
- Medical, Dental and Vision Care Insurance
- Basic & Supplemental Life Insurance
- Health Care Spending Account (HCSA) and Health Savings Account (HSA)
- Dependent Care Assistance Program (DCAP)
- Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
- Long-Term Disability Program
- Catastrophic Leave Program
- 457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan

How to Apply

Qualified candidates should send a completed application and all supporting documents to jobs@hrd.cccounty.us.

Applications will be accepted through Friday, March 14, 2025 at 11:59 pm. A link to the application is included below:

Auditor - Controller Application
<https://www.contracosta.ca.gov/DocumentCenter/View/80926/Auditor-Controller-2025-PDF>

*Note applications and attachments provided are public, subject to California Public Records Act (CA Gov. Code §6250-6270), and will be posted online.

Tentative Timeline

March 25, 2025 - Board of Supervisors Application Review
April 1, 2025 - Candidate interviews.

Interviews will be conducted within a public Board of Supervisors meeting.

Please direct any questions to the Contra Costa Human Resources Department at (925) 655-2100 or jobs@hrd.cccounty.us

Contra Costa County Auditor / Controller

Annual salary $277,057.44

Apply by Friday, March 14, 2025

The County & Community

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY is one of the top ten most populous counties in California, spanning 733 square miles with a population of 1.2 million. The County includes varied urban, suburban, industrial, agricultural, and port areas, and contains 19 incorporated cities - including Martinez, the County seat and the location of the County's administrative offices. The County of Contra Costa provides a full range of services through 26 departments, operates with a budget of approximately $6 billion, and employs a staff of approximately 11,400.

With a wide array of recreational opportunities and convenient access to major metropolitan areas, the County provides a dynamic and engaging lifestyle and is easily navigated by the San Francisco Bay Area Transit (BART). The County has a rich ethnic, cultural and socioeconomic diversity. It is home to prestigious academic institutions including Stanford University and the University of California at Berkeley.

Residents enjoy a healthy, safe and prosperous life in Contra Costa County!

Learn more at:
<https://www.contracosta.ca.gov>

Requirements

Government Code section 24001 and Elections Code section 201 requires that the appointee for Auditor-Controller as an elected office be a registered voter within Contra Costa County and qualified to vote for that office at the time of appointment. To qualify for appointment to the office, a person must also meet at least one of the following criteria:

- The person possesses a valid and active certificate issued by the California Board of Accountancy under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division of the Business Professions Code showing the person to be, and a permit authorizing the person to practice as, a certified public accountant.
- The person possesses a baccalaureate degree from a accredited university, college or other four-year institution with a major in accounting, or a business-related degree and has served within the last five years in a senior fiscal management position in a county, city or other public agency or a non-profit organization, dealing with similar fiscal responsibilities, including, but not limited to, public accounting or auditing responsibilities, for a continuous period of not less than three years.
- The person has served as County Auditor, Assistant County Auditor, Chief Deputy County Auditor or an equivalent position for a continuous period of not less than three years.

Contra Costa County is committed to racial equity, inclusion, and social justice within all county operations and is dedicated to the advancement of key initiatives and efforts in support of this essential mission. The ideal candidate will also possess a value system that engenders trust and confidence and embodies a commitment to racial equity, diversity, and inclusion.