Deer Trail was closed to all vehicle traffic except residents from approximately 6pm to 9:30pm Halloween night.

Coffee with the Chief will resume in March – weather permitting.
5. CHP Report: October 2025: No report given.
7. Homeowners Association Report: No report given.
8. Blackhawk Country Club Report: No report given.

9 Old Business:

A. Role of P2A and Parcel Tax Campaign – Clarify that members are not representing the P2A when you campaign for a parcel tax. Reminder that members should clearly indicate they are discussing the topic as residents, not Committee Members.

B. Update on P2A Community Outreach – Discussions have already occurred with BH Women and On the calendar for January 21st. Will have 30 or more attendees. The outreach from the P2A is to educate about what Police Services are doing. Many may not know that officers are not staffed 24 hours a day. Educate and inform.

C. Parcel Tax for Police Services – Members agree we should keep the tax on the agenda even when the item is pushed to future meetings. Andy Cohan shared the presentation made to the Blackhawk HOA for reference and future use.

10. New Business:

A. Update budget projections through '32/'33 –We will dip into reserves for approximately $60,000 this year, and another $100,000 in 2026/27. Reserves would be expended in 2028/29.

B. P2A Committee Member Expiration & Renewals: Andy Cohan, Robert Durr, Bruce Gekko, and Linda Vaughn. These members have all expressed willingness to continue as members of the Committee verbally and via email confirmation. They will complete the required update training and their appointments will renew for two more years.

The next meeting is currently scheduled for January 13, 2026. There will not be a meeting in December.

Adjourn at 7:15pm.

Linda Vaughn – Motion, Robert Durr - Second: Motion Unanimously Passed
