

The Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, California

In the matter of: Recognizing Government Communicators Day.

Resolution No. 2025-43

WHEREAS, government communications professionals play a vital role in informing, educating, and engaging their communities; and

WHEREAS, effective communication in government fosters trust, inspires civic action, and encourages residents to actively participate in their communities; and

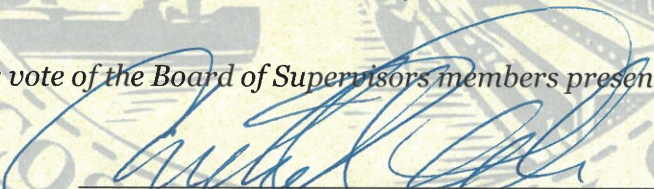

WHEREAS, government communicators build relationships, issue calls to action, and create awareness and understanding through the power of storytelling, while using diverse communication channels to include all voices in critical decision-making processes; and

WHEREAS, strong government communication is essential to the foundation of democracy, empowering citizens to make their voices heard and participate meaningfully in civic life; and

WHEREAS, Contra Costa County deeply values and recognizes the professionalism, dedication, hard work, commitment, enthusiasm, and sacrifices of government communicators who serve their communities with excellence; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County does hereby proclaims February 21, 2025, as Government Communicators Day, honoring the vital contributions of these professionals in strengthening our democracy and fostering an informed and engaged society.

PASSED by a unanimous vote of the Board of Supervisors members present this 25th day of February 2025.
