As a former Early Childhood Professional for the past 50 years - and now a grandparent of 3 children under the age of 5 in child care - I believe both my personal and professional expertise and experience coupled with my passion for ECE, workforce development, working with underrepresented groups will support the work of the committee. I have been privileged to sit on the committee for the past year, and attended meetings prior to that, I bring a unique perspective to the committee.

See above. In addition as a retired person, I also have the time to contribute to the work of the committee, supporting it's activities and goals. For the past 10 years I have worked to create, fund and support early educator apprenticeships training low income community members, parents of young children and high school students to become early childhood teachers. This work is particularly important to the work of this committee.
