Please explain why you would like to serve on this particular board, committee, or commission.

I'm a high school student deeply invested in community organizing, politics, and social work, with a particular focus on issues within America's criminal justice system, especially the school-to-prison pipeline dilemma. I have conducted extensive research, including multiple papers submitted for school and the Model United Nations Club. I firmly believe that addressing these issues starts at the grassroots level within our own communities and among the people within them. I desire to be a part of the solution by giving back to my community and supporting youth like myself, working towards solutions to this nationwide problem

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume).

I am a highly ambitious, well spoken activist, advocate, and aspiring politician ready to work hard and contribute my best effort into anything asked of me. I have a 4.2 Weighted GPA in highschool, am a varsity Track and Field/Cross Country runner and captain, and involved in clubs such as Model UN and Speech and Debate, both of which I serve as club leader. I have also worked with and in AAPI Youth Rising, an Asian American advocacy group, and have served on the Albany Board Policy Committee. I worked in close association with Supervisor John Gioia, and assisted him and his team over the summer.

EXPERIENCE

Intern at Office of Contra Costa County Supervisor John Gioia's Office

May 2024 - August 2024

I worked closely with Supervisor John Gioia and his team over the summer to come up with smart, creative solutions to various problems in CCC, including: equitable healthcare, climate activism, and affordable housing. I also learned valuable skills such as networking, cold-calling, and advertising.

Albany City Council Board Policy Committee

November 2023 - Present

I collaborate with administrators to develop programs that address current challenges faced by the student body and maintain accurate records of student activities and interactions with staff members. Similarly, I encourage diversity initiatives to foster an inclusive environment for all learners.

Student Advocacy Committee

January 2022 - Present

I assist students with understanding their rights and responsibilities, and advocate for their needs to my city's educational department. I facilitate communication between faculty members and students regarding academic issues and compile student data and feedback to present to the Albany City Council.

Model United Nations

January 2022 - Present

Research and analyze global political issues such as human rights, international law, and economic development. I conduct mock negotiations with other delegates to simulate real-world diplomatic interactions. In Model UN we deliver powerful speeches in front of large audiences to advocate for a particular position or resolution. I write detailed and elaborate reports with carefully thought-out proposals that address complex international conflicts.

Speech and Debate

January 2022 - Present

In Speech and Debate I focus on impromptu speaking and debating. I provide constructive critiques for debate team member performances to help newer members. I also work on vocal technique and speech structure and strategy to deliver charismatic and logically sound on-the-fly speeches. I interact with my audience during presentations to engage and capture their attention.

Outward Bound USA Graduate

Jun 8 - Jul 24, 2022

I am an experienced outdoor enthusiast with a passion for leading backpacking expeditions through rugged terrain. Proven track record of guiding groups safely while fostering teamwork and personal growth. Skilled in wilderness navigation, risk management, and emergency response protocols. Committed to providing transformative outdoor experiences and promoting environmental stewardship.
