Discussion was held.

Public comment was received.

The Subcommittee provided an update on recent program tours, noting visits to the Reentry Success Center, Men & Women of Purpose, Lao Family Community Development, HealthRight 360, and Rubicon Programs. They plan to schedule a remaining visit with Bay Area Legal Aid and will contact Rachel Hoerger to arrange it. Members expressed interest in hearing more directly from participants about their experiences receiving services and proposed creating a checklist to ensure key topics and questions are consistently addressed during site visits.

6. Discuss Timeline for Client Feedback Process. 25-3892

Discussion was held.

Public comment was received.

The Subcommittee discussed the client feedback timeline and proposed conducting focus groups in April in recognition of National Reentry Month. They plan to use findings from the in-custody survey to develop targeted focus group questions. The goal is to release the in-custody survey in early November, before Thanksgiving, or by early December. The survey will be available on tablets, with paper copies provided for individuals on disciplinary status. The survey will remain open for approximately one month, though the timeline may be adjusted to ensure data analysis is completed by January.

7. Brainstorm Future Service Models Ideas.

Discussion was held.

Public comment was received.

The Subcommittee discussed various service models, including those grounded in restorative principles, point-in-time storytelling, and trade and employment support. Additional ideas included family-centered events like father daughter days held within correctional facilities, incorporating equestrian trades and therapy, providing legal and firefighting training opportunities, and offering family engagement and whole family support services. Other models mentioned included creative workforce pathways such as advertising, acting or stage production. The Subcommittee also noted international examples, highlighting that countries like Switzerland and the United Kingdom have more advanced restorative justice practices and lower incarceration rates.

8. The next meeting is currently scheduled for Thursday, October 16, 2025, at 11 a.m.

Next Steps:

1. Review CAB Programs & Services work plan
2. Update on Program tours
3. Discuss in-custody survey and process
4. Discuss service model ideas

9. Adjourn

The meeting was adjourned at 12:11 p.m. by Tiffany Anaya. The next scheduled meeting of the Subcommittee is Thursday, October 16, 2025, at 11 a.m.
