I am eager to serve on the Contra Costa Economic Opportunity Council Board again because I want to see my community thrive. Growing up, I directly benefited from the services and resources available to us, which helped provide opportunities and support during critical times. These services played an important role in shaping my path, and I am deeply grateful for them. Now, I am passionate about giving back by contributing my time, skills, and experiences to ensure that others have access to the same opportunities I had. I believe in the power of community, and I am committed to working toward economic solutions that uplift individuals and families in Contra Costa County. By serving on this board, I hope to help expand programs that support economic empowerment, job development, and sustainable growth, so future generations can also experience the opportunities that helped me succeed.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume).

I am honored to submit my qualifications for consideration as a board member of the Economic Opportunity Council for the City of Contra Costa. My diverse leadership roles and commitment to community service have equipped me with a unique blend of skills and experiences that align with the council's mission to enhance economic opportunities within our community.
