Please explain why you would like to serve on this particular board, committee, or commission.

A position on this board would complement my current service as a member of the Board of Clayton Valley Village whose mission is to provide and facilitate services which allow seniors to continue living in their homes, if they wish. I support the need for county wide planning and coordination to develop and improve efficient and effective services, especially for currently unmet needs of the older residents of this county.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume).

30 years of experience in health care in multiple roles including as a clinician, executive, educator, and consultant. As a clinician I have worked with elderly clients to assist them in attaining appropriate support services. In working as a healthcare consultant, I have observed multiple systems for delivering healthcare services to elderly clients.

I am including my resume with this application:
