Title	Date	Summary
Economy/Trade/Tax (back to top)
Reciprocal Trade and Tariffs (text)	2/13/2025	Establishes the Fair and Reciprocal Plan, directing the U.S. government to assess and counter non-reciprocal trade practices by foreign trading partners. It outlines a strategy to impose equivalent tariffs and address barriers such as value-added taxes, subsidies, currency manipulation, and regulatory restrictions that disadvantage U.S. businesses and workers. The Secretary of Commerce and the U.S. Trade Representative will investigate and recommend corrective actions, while the Office of Management and Budget will assess fiscal impacts.

Adjusting Imports of Aluminum into The United States (text)	2/11/2025	Increases tariffs on aluminum imports from 10% to 25%. It revokes previous tariff exemptions for countries such as Canada, Mexico, Australia, Argentina, the European Union, and the United Kingdom.
Adjusting Imports of Steel into The United States (text)	2/10/2025	Reinstates a 25% tariff on steel and derivative steel imports from several countries, including Canada, Mexico, the EU, Japan, South Korea, Brazil, and the UK, citing national security concerns and increasing global steel overcapacity. It also terminates existing exemptions and alternative trade agreements, eliminates product exclusion processes, and implements stricter import monitoring and enforcement measures.
Amendment to Duties Addressing the Synthetic Opioid Supply Chain in the People's Republic of China (text)	2/7/2025	Modifies the provision regarding duty-free de minimis treatment for certain imported goods. Under the amendment, de minimis treatment remains available for eligible articles but will be revoked once the Secretary of Commerce confirms that sufficient systems are in place to efficiently collect applicable tariff revenue.
A Plan for Establishing a United States Sovereign Wealth Fund (text)	2/3/2025	Directs the development of a sovereign wealth fund to strengthen U.S. financial sustainability, reduce tax burdens, and enhance economic leadership. Treasury and Commerce Departments, in coordination with the President's economic team, must submit a plan within 90 days outlining funding sources, investment strategies, governance, and legal considerations.
Imposing Duties to Address the Synthetic Opioid Supply Chain in the People's Republic of China (text)	2/1/2025	Imposes a 10% tariff on all Chinese imports starting February 4, 2025, to pressure the Chinese government to take action against drug production and money laundering networks.
Imposing Duties to Address the Situation at Our Southern Border (text)	2/1/2025	Imposes a 25% tariff on all Mexican imports starting February 4, 2025, to pressure the Mexican government to take stronger action against drug cartels and human trafficking networks.
Imposing Duties to Address the Flow of Illicit Drugs Across Our Northern Border (text)	2/1/2025	Expands the national emergency at the southern border to include drug trafficking and illegal migration at the northern border. It imposes a 25% tariff on most Canadian imports and a 10% tariff on energy products starting February 4, 2025.

Strengthening American Leadership in Digital Financial Technology (text)	1/23/2025	Revokes prior policies promoting Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDCs), prohibits their development or use within the United States, and establishes a President's Working Group on Digital Asset Markets to create a clear regulatory framework for digital assets, including stablecoins. The order also directs agencies to review existing regulations, terminate inconsistent guidance, and focus on advancing the responsible growth of blockchain technology and digital assets while safeguarding individual rights and the sovereignty of the U.S. dollar.
America First Trade Policy (text)	1/20/2025	Outlines a directive to strengthen America's trade policies by addressing trade deficits, unfair practices, and economic security risks while promoting industrial and technological advantages. The memo further calls for comprehensive reviews and recommendations across various sectors, including trade agreements, tariff policies, currency manipulation, and export controls.
The Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Global Tax Deal (Global Tax Deal) (text)	1/20/2025	Declares that the OECD Global Tax Deal holds no force or effect in the United States without Congressional approval and directs federal officials to notify the OECD accordingly. It further mandates an investigation into foreign tax practices that may harm American businesses, with recommendations for protective measures to safeguard U.S. economic interests.
Delivering Emergency Price Relief for American Families and Defeating the Cost-of-Living Crisis (text)	1/20/2025	Orders the heads of all executive departments and agencies to deliver emergency price relief, consistent with applicable law.
