In terms of my relevant experience, I served as the Student Trustee for Contra Costa Community College District for both the County and for the State Community College League of California, which allowed me to be part of the board advocating for students. During my time as a Trustee, we launched impactful initiatives such as setting up a student pantry for those experiencing homelessness, including those who were living in their vehicles. I also advocated for undocumented students at the federal level. Additionally, I spearheaded a fundraiser for undocumented students with the support of District Attorney Diana Becton and Assembly Member Rebecca Bauer-kahan. Furthermore, I initiated a program to support students dealing with sexual harassment, with a budget of 2.1 million dollars. I have also been involved in various college clubs, where I helped students amplify their voices, build confidence, and secure scholarships to pursue their goals. Even today, I continue to volunteer my time to support deserving candidates for election, as I believe in the importance of having leaders who will bring positive changes to our community. Having experienced poverty firsthand, I am committed to never ceasing my efforts to help those in need, as I understand the struggles and firmly believe that everyone deserves access to basic necessities.
