Qualifications and Volunteer Experience

Please explain why you would like to serve on this particular board, committee, or commission.

Serving on this board, committee, or commission is a deeply personal commitment for me, shaped by my experiences growing up in Brentwood and my identity as a first-generation, gay Filipino American. Having lived through the challenges faced by our community, particularly the emotional impact of events like COVID-19 and the pressures placed on our youth, I have witnessed firsthand the struggles and resilience of our young people. The lack of proper support for our youth can lead them to seek solace in unhealthy coping mechanisms. This is a concern that resonates deeply with me, and I am passionate about addressing it. My unique perspective as someone who has navigated these challenges myself equips me with the insight needed to understand and address the specific needs of diverse groups within Contra Costa County. I believe that by bringing my background and experiences to this board, I can contribute valuable perspectives and propose effective solutions tailored to our community's needs. I am committed to leveraging my understanding of the issues at hand to create meaningful change and to provide support where it is most needed. Serving on this board represents an opportunity for me to make a positive impact and to advocate for the well-being and success of our youth and marginalized communities.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume with this application)

I am well-qualified for this appointment to the Juvenile Justice Commission due to my extensive experience in youth advocacy, policy development, and community engagement. My current role with GENup, a nationwide student-led social justice organization, has provided me with a deep understanding of educational policy reform and the complexities of advocating for systemic change. This experience has equipped me with the skills necessary to contribute effectively to the Juvenile Justice Commission's mission of improving juvenile justice systems. My involvement with the Brentwood Youth Commission further enhances my qualifications. Serving on this commission has allowed me to directly engage with local issues and work towards meaningful policy changes within our community. I have addressed disparities and worked on initiatives to improve the well-being of youth in Brentwood, focusing on creating equitable opportunities for all. This role has deepened my understanding of local needs and the importance of tailored solutions, which will be valuable in addressing juvenile justice concerns. Additionally, my background as a gay Filipino American brings a unique perspective that I believe is crucial for representing marginalized communities in Brentwood. I am committed to advocating for the needs of the gay and Asian American communities, ensuring that their voices are heard and their issues are addressed. My experience in community organizing and my dedication to addressing disparities position me well to contribute to the Juvenile Justice Commission's goals of fostering a fair and inclusive justice system for all youth.
