Information & Referral

ILRSCC maintains an extensive reference library that offers information about services, products, and community resources of interest. On-site ILRSCC staff offer consultations to clients and their families to match them with appropriate resources in the community.

All of our services are provided free of charge for persons with disabilities and seniors, their families, and the agencies that serve them.

Systems Advocacy & Individual Advocacy

ILRSCC's staff actively advocates to continually improve the lives of those with disabilities. ILRSCC's goal is to eliminate physical and mental barriers as well as end discriminatory practices within the institution and the community at large. ILRSCC often addresses issues of civil rights, public transportation, fair housing and policy change.

All of our services are provided free of charge for persons with disabilities and seniors, their families, and the agencies that serve them.

Independent Living Skills

ILRSCC provides education and training to develop practical life skills that are imperative to independent living. Instruction is provided on an individualized basis and can include:

- Money Management and Paying Bills
- Using public transportation
- Grocery Shopping
- Housing Agreements and Responsibilities
- Social Skills

All of our services are provided free of charge for persons with disabilities and seniors, their families, and the agencies that serve them.

Assistive Technology

Assistive Technology is any object, device, or tool that allows one to live independently. ILRSCC helps people acquire the necessary assistive device for their needs and teaches consumers how to properly use them.

All of our services are provided free of charge for persons with disabilities and seniors, their families, and the agencies that serve them.

Institutional Transition & Diversion

Transition can mean helping a person to move from a nursing home to a place to live independently in their community. It can also mean helping a young person to move to their next steps after high school. Diversion includes services that help people with what they need to live independently in their own home so they do not have to live in a nursing home.

All of our services are provided free of charge for persons with disabilities and seniors, their families, and the agencies that serve them.

Voice Options

ILRSCC through a partnership with the California Public Utilities Commission's (CPUC) Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program \(DDTP\), the California Department of Rehabilitation's (DOR) Voice Options program provides eligible Californians who are unable to speak, or who have difficulty speaking, with a free speech-generating device. The goal of this program is to ensure full and equal telephone communications access for all Californians with disabilities.

All of our services are provided free of charge for persons with disabilities and seniors, their families, and the agencies that serve them.

Community Education

ILRSCC conducts educational events and activities for the community on issues that affect the Disability Community and provides special topic speakers, sensitivity training, accessibility surveys, and consultations regarding compliance with relevant state & federal regulations.

All of our services are provided free of charge for persons with disabilities and seniors, their families, and the agencies that serve them.
